Grant Funding Application

Zonta Club of Denver Funding – to empower women in the Denver metro area

Purpose of Grant (eligible for funding):

1. Support a new or on-going project for a 501(c)(3) organization.
2. Project focusing on directly improving the status and quality of life of at-risk women and girls in the Denver metro area.
3. Requested grant amount will constitute all or a major portion of total project funding.

NOT Eligible for Zonta Club of Denver Grant Funds: General operating funds, fund raising drives, capital campaigns, or any project promoting any specific religion, or political party and/or candidate. An organization that has received grants for three consecutive years will not be awarded another grant until after a minimum one-year funding recess.

The Zonta Club of Denver (ZCD) Service Committee reviews all complete applications meeting the above criteria and makes recommendations for disbursement. The recommendations are submitted for approval to the ZCD Board of Directors and to the Zonta Club of Denver Foundation (ZCDF) Trustees. The ZCD Board and/or the ZCDF Trustees may accept or change the Service Committee recommendations. Awarded funds will be presented at the ZCD Club meeting on February 8, 2024.

By accepting a grant from ZCD, the recipient agrees to:

- Attend the club meeting in February 2024 to accept the grant funds.
- Provide a written report in six months on the project’s successes and failures.
- Accept an invitation for a presentation to the Club about the project and the use of grant funds.
- Recognize ZCD as a donor in your public relations efforts within the community, on your website and in Newsletters. Also, include a link to the Zonta website on your website.
- Support ZCD fundraiser, the 2024 Day of Film, by purchasing or selling a minimum of 3 tickets (estimated at $55 each). Attendance is highly encouraged by publicizing the event to your board members and supporters. Grant recipients will be recognized in the program and at the event.
