Service Options

By Linda Corssmit

This is just a small reminder of the many projects your Zonta Club of Denver is involved with and the variety of opportunities we Zontians have to make a difference in people's lives while we're advancing the status of women in our community.

Current Projects

Watch for sign-up sheets at the April general meeting, or call Linda C. for information.

- April 20 and May 18: dinner at the Delores Project, 1290 King Street, Denver
- May 4: Denver Kids Teen Moms Graduation Party at the King Penthouse, 900 Pennsylvania, Denver, 2:00-3:30. Hostesses and food welcome.
- May 12: Work Options for Women Fourth Annual Women Cook fundraiser.
- May 30: Excelsior Youth Center fundraiser at the DTC Hyatt Regency.

Ongoing Service Opportunities

Highlights on a few of the many organizations ZCD supports with money and/or hands-on help.

Excelsior Youth Center (Aurora)--a residential treatment center for girls to 18 years, many of whom are sent there by the courts. Girls attend the fully accredited high school and learn social and independent living skills.

Want to help? Volunteer at the May 30th fundraiser, and/or donate housewares an emancipating girl can use to set up her first apartment.

Dress for Success (1420 Ogden St. Denver)--starting up again after being gone from the Denver scene for several years. Executive Director Kathy Bacon was delighted with the underwear and make-up ZCD collected at Christmas.

Want to help? Donate your gently used business clothes for women entering or reentering the work force. Items must be in season, clean, pressed, and on hangers, and may be brought to any general meeting.

Bonfils Blood Center--accepts blood donations for surgical, trauma and anemia patients. There are several collection sites in the metro area, including mobile units.

Want to help? Call 303-363-2300 to ask about eligibility or schedule and appointment. Mention ZCD when you donate and our club will be recognized in the Bonfils quarterly newsletter.

President Nikki's April Message...

March 27, 2008

Together we are stronger and our voices louder than any one of us or any one club alone. Proof of that was the passing in the Colorado General Assembly earlier this month of a Resolution in support of CEDAW, the Convention to Eradicate All Discrimination Against Women. The United Nations approved CEDAW in December, 1979. To date 185 state parties (I think of them as countries) have ratified CEDAW. Among those that have not: Iran, Somalia, Sudan, Qatar, and the USA. Our wonderful Area 3 Director (soon to be Lt. Governor), Kay Meyer, working with Alice Borodkin, a Colorado House Representative, marshaled the Area 3 Clubs and made a difference. That concerted effort resulted in Colorado becoming the 17th state along with the Territory of Guam to pass a resolution urging the US Senate to ratify this treaty. What a wonderful example of advocacy in action. If this torch is lit by Zonta clubs in states that have not yet passed a resolution, then perhaps the majority of our 52 states will pass a resolution. And, then, perhaps that will force our politicians in Washington to put the issue back on the table and to ratify it.

Advocacy has always seemed such a "fuzzy" word to me and, in the beginning, left me wondering just exactly what it entails and how it can work. The above is a terrific example. If we keep knocking on the door, get more to join in that knocking, keep spreading accurate information about an issue, become a thorn in the side of whoever or whatever, and don't give up, then changes can occur. How lucky we are to be a part of a worldwide organization that utilizes advocacy to effect changes.

At the local level, I'm so impressed with the Zonta Club of Denver's proposed slate of officers and directors! Come vote them in at our April meeting. If approved, I know our club will be in great hands for the next fiscal year!

ZCD Notes

Board Members: Heads Up #2

President Nikki is still insisting on a smooth transition from the '08 Board to the '09 Board. She's relentless. To that end, she's suggesting that all committees' processes and forms should be copied to disks for easy transfer to new committee chairs. For some complex committees, this may take a little digging, so President Nikki offers consulting services help any committee chair (or member assigned the task) who needs a little help to get this operation going..

During the April General Meeting...

Keep your eyes peeled for dues statements. Yep, It's that time again when we are privileged to contribute our annual dues to the good works of our club. Isn't it amazing that the dues amount, plus our enthusiasm and elbow grease, can do so much for women in Denver and around the world?!

Also, be prepared to vote on the proposed slate of officers (see March meeting minutes on page 8 for the whole list).

We're looking forward to seeing you there!

Program: "Be Yourself Before Some Else Is:
Identity Theft and How Not To Be the Victim"
By Justin Bates, Financial Crimes Unit
Jefferson County Sheriff's Office

Have you read the disheartening stories about people whose identities have been stolen? Avoiding legal action and restoring credit ratings can take victims many hours of effort and several years to rectify. Justin will bring us up to date on recent developments in this area of criminal activity and crime prevention and perhaps save some of us from becoming prey to it.

Reservations

For each general dinner meeting, please remember to call if you aren't on the permanent reservation list. Our new contract guarantees us only one additional meal over the number we confirm on Monday afternoon, so if you don't make your reservation on time, you may have to snack from other members' plates! And, as always, we are charged for the number we guarantee, so we have to bill anyone who makes a reservation (or forgets to cancel a permanent reservation) but doesn't come to the meeting.

UPDATE YOUR STATUS ON THE LIST!

- Check the Permanent Reservation List. at right.
- Those who are on the permanent reservation list do not have to call to make their reservation for the dinner meetings.
- If you plan on coming to every meeting—why not add your name if it is not on the list?

44 for 08: Ideas are Springing Up All Over!

By Judy McNerny

The Membership Committee is planning several additional prospective member events this spring to help our club grow to 44 members! Please be thinking of friends and acquaintances who might share your passion for improving the status of women, and invite them to one of these events.

We need your help to make these events successful. Each one will be held on the second Thursday of the month (except in May when it will be on the third Thursday). Wait! (you're saying) those will conflict with our club meetings—are those Membership people crazy? Well, no, each of our meetings is a prospective member event, if there are any prospective members in attendance. Please put on your thinking caps! Be creative and, remember, the club pays for dinner for prospective members.

April's meeting is also perfect for friends who have bank and credit card accounts (do you know anyone like that?) and who are thus potential identity theft victims (see page 3 regarding our program).

See you and your guests on April 10!

Interesting May Program

By Judy McNerny

On May 15 (the third Thursday of May), our speaker will be Martha Riley, with Project Education Sudan. The Project's mission is to build primary and secondary education infrastructure including schools, teachers and school supplies in communities throughout southern Sudan, where 20 years of internal conflict have destroyed communities. You will hear how this Denver-based organization is "Building Schools and Hope in Southern Sudan."

Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic (1355 S. Colorado Blvd., Unit C-406, Denver)--records textbooks for those with print disabilities such as visual impairment, dyslexia, or paralysis. Want to help? Call 303-757-0787 for information about volunteering. Readers, directors and book markers are needed.

Also: Judy McNerny has offered to send out as an e-mail attachment an in-kind donation form for those who have bought food for the Delores Project dinners, and.....

Myrna Camacho has taken on the responsibility of regularly refreshing our Imagination Library ad on craigslist.org to keep it near the top of the list.

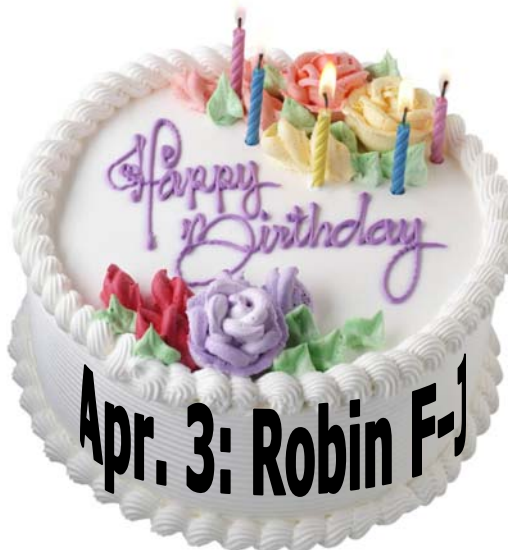

Thanks Judy and Myrna!

Yellow Rose Tea Reminder

Are you as busy as we are? Whew!

Given that Spring has sprung a bit earlier this year, you may have misplaced or overlooked your Yellow Rose Tea invitation.

Don't be embarrassed, contributions are still being accepted (and you're not alone). Send your invitations out to friends with a handwritten "oops!" and send your contribution to Mandy Ziegler. Note that the check is for the Tea. Thank you all.

Membership Committee Meeting

The next meeting of the Membership Committee is set for May 18 5:30 at Judy McNerny's home.

Fund Raising Committee Entertaining Ideas

By Diane Twining

Future Signature Event

Your Fund Raising Committee has been meeting on a monthly basis and is excited to offer some ideas for a new ZCD signature event. The committee members have researched these possibilities:

1. High Tea at a special location;
2. Glass Slipper Ball; and
3. Film Festival or Series.

See the research results in this issue and be prepared to vote on your favorite at the April Meeting.

Additionally, the option of selling King Soopers Gift Cards has been discussed. We will hear final recommendations at our April meeting.

Baskets for Area 3 Meeting

ZCD will sell themed gift baskets at the Area 3 Meeting Saturday, April 12. To assist FR Committee members, please help gather items for three basket themes:

- Rockies Basket
- Book Lovers Basket (to include wine)
- Gardeners Basket

You'll find partial inventories of what has been collected and ideas of what is still needed in your email, or call Diane T or Deb H. for an update.

Please bring your donations (and their retail cost) to the April meeting.

Theater Events

Our next event is on Sunday, April 27 @ 12:15 p.m. Boulder Dinner Theatre is staging, "The Little Shop of Horrors." The $57 ticket includes your meal (what a deal!). Deadline for reservations and payment has passed, but call Dorothy S. (303-934-3780) to see if seats are still available. See the flyer at the end of this issue. We hope to see you there!

Still Time to Sign up for Area 3 Meeting

By Diane Twining and Nikki Headlee

The newly 'blended' Zonta Club of Lakewood-Golden is hosting the Area 3 meeting and members are working to make this a memorable, valuable event. Sneak previews of the agenda reveal a fun and informative morning for Zonta fellowship, and facts and figures about financial planning, leadership and eliminating domestic violence.

WHEN: Saturday April 12, 2008

Registration is 7:30 a.m.

(be on time—don't miss breakfast!)

WHERE: Table Mountain Inn, Golden, Colorado

Michael Lindsey, of the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office, will moderate a panel of experts on gender violence, including City, County and State law enforcement, prosecutors, victims' advocates and service and treatment providers, to discuss progress on this critical issue.

Lakewood-Golden members are developing breakout sessions related to personal financial planning and Mary Benoit and Area 3 Director Kay Meyer are presenting on leadership.

Guests are welcome, as the morning promises to be informative for all community leaders. The $40 cost includes a continental breakfast and lunch. See the Lakewood-Golden website for more information or call Diane Twining for details.

Dieting Tip

"A great way to lose weight is to eat naked in front of a mirror. Restaurants will almost always throw you out before you can eat too much." Frank Varanohild

Don't Think About It

Fundraising Proposes Three Events: Vote Needed

The Fundraising committee’s charge this year was to research and offer a new ZCD ‘signature’ event. Following the brain-storming session we had in October, the committee conducted additional research on the top ideas and is pleased to offer for your consideration, discussion and vote, the following concepts; High Tea, the Glass Slipper Ball and the ZCD Film Festival.

As a result of the Fundraising Committee’s research and analysis, each proposal has been rated on Flexibility, Risk, Complexity and “SPEC.” SPEC is the availability of business Sponsorships; the possibility of one or two non-profit organizations to Partner with; the need to hire an Event Planner for maximum return on investments and public relations; and finally the anticipated likelihood of an enthusiastic Commitment by all ZCD members in time and energy to support the event.

Additional information will be provided at the April meeting, and you will be asked to vote on which event we pursue.

HIGH TEA

The Brown Palace High Tea would offer a leisurely afternoon tea in downtown Denver. Participants would enjoy tea, scones, garden sandwiches, pastries and music. This first High Tea would be at the historic Brown Palace Hotel. Subsequent High Teas could be held at different historic locations in the Denver area. The Brown offers flexibility for the Tea’s site; if there are fewer than 70 participants we will be seated in the Palace Mezzanine overlooking the main lobby. We could also host this event in a private room at no additional charge.

The Brown Palace’s historian can present fascinating facts about the people and events during the hotel’s history and/or provide guided tours. Tours would cost an additional $75 per group of 35 or fewer.

Proposed ticket prices: Signature Afternoon Tea: estimated ticket price $55 to $65 (includes tea, Palace Historian, 45-50 minute presentation & gratuity.

SPEC*	Sponsors- not needed; 501C3 Partners-nice, but not mandatory; Event Planner-not needed; Commitment by the members-mid level
Flexi-bility	some, as the location and special ‘internal’ supporting events could vary by year
Risk	very low, similar to present theatre events
Com-plexity	low

GLASS SLIPPER BALL

The GSB is a very high profile, classy event. The event includes a silent auction, sale of “surprise gift packages,” a “best of chef” mini event, a “best of floral arrangements” mini event, live band, dancing demonstrations and dancing. It is a black tie optional glitzy event.

The silent auction items and surprise packages are all donated and are 100% profit. The chefs and florists participate at no charge. It is nice, also courteous to present them with small thank you gifts and certificates for the winners. It is great PR for them and us with small dollar outlay.

Dancing demonstrations are presented by well known dance studios. These dance studios can be event Sponsors and will sell tickets to their own clients and business contacts.

The corporate community needs to be involved and asked to sponsor the event. This approach is a marketing opportunity for them.

The club needs to choose a 501C3 that is aligned with Zonta’s mission. We would be able to use their mailing list for support and ticket sales.

The tickets should sell for an estimated $100 to $125 each. Based on another Zonta GSB event held in Colorado, we should be able to sell approximately 300 to 400 tickets. Our proceeds are estimated to be in excess of $10,000.00.

This trademarked event is owned by the Event Planner, and is being successfully staged by other U.S. Zonta clubs.

SPEC	Sponsors- needed; 501C3 Partners-mandatory; Event Planner- needed; Com-mitment by the members- high
Flexi-bility	some, as the location and special ‘internal’ supporting events could vary by year
Risk	high, although there is a successful ‘track record’ in several different cities
Com-plexity	high

Fundraising Proposes Three Events (cont'd)

ZCD FILM FESTIVAL

The Film-Festival-as-fundraiser concept is relatively new to the Denver Metro area. Currently there are only a few film festivals being staged and most are directly linked to the Starz Film Institute. A Film Festival has total flexibility in size and format and can be expanded and modified for each annual event based on attendance, business Sponsorship, 501©3 Partners, etc.

Initially, we've discussed having a one or two night event with several films being offered for a flat rate. A variety of films will be offered at the festival; comedies, dramas, documentaries, foreign; the options are almost endless. However, all of the films should have a theme related to our mission and those of our selected 501C3 Partners. This is an opportunity for entertainment, fun, food and drinks, with voluntary participation in film discussion forums.

We have tentatively sounded out a location and 'working' partner for this event, Neighborhood Flix, which is independently owned and operates in the Lowenstein Theatre complex at Colfax and Elizabeth with The Tattered Cover book store, Twist and Shout records and Encore Restaurant. These businesses are very excited about the event and Zonta and have offered their own suggestions ranging from a week-long cultural festival, a roundtable film series with food, and discussions with film experts, all the way to possibly renting the entire facility for a private screening party including dinner, drinks, live music, silent auctions and a chance to meet cast & crews, from the films (a little bling).

Neighborhood Flix is unique because they have their own restaurant with chef and food is meant to be eaten in the three separate screening theatres. The theatre has staged numerous events separately and with the other businesses which enjoy high visibility in the Denver Metro area.

Expenses and profits cannot be realistically estimated without further planning on size and the final event.

Corporate Sponsorships seem to be available based on initial contacts, while 501C3 Partners will need to be chosen by the ZCD membership.

SPEC*	Sponsors are needed; 501C3 Partners-mandatory; Event Planner needed; Commitment by the members- high
Flexibility	very high, we own the concept and can expand as desired
Risk	high, although other film events in Denver have fared very well
Complexity	high

Clarifying Considerations

The High Tea is unique from the other two concepts because we feel this event would be relatively easy to stage with a high 'fellowship factor.' However, the probable income could be lower, but due to the simplicity of staging this event, we feel the High Tea could be held in addition to one of the other events. Please keep this in mind as you consider all of the concepts.

The other two proposed events are more complex to stage but offer higher rates of return for the higher risk. The Club members will have to seek out SPEC. Based on the committee member's research, we stress the importance of SPEC in the success of any event we select now and in the future.

Based on conversations with all ZCD members, we want the signature event to be:

- aligned with and a showcase for the Zonta mission;
- interesting to women and men and non-Zontians;
- a long-term event that can grow and possibly expand in size and
- a source of positive PR for ZCD in the community and attractive to new members.

Finally, we feel that any of the proposed events need a three-year commitment of support by the ZCD members.

Minutes: Dinner Meeting March 13, 2008

Call to Order by Nikki Headlee at 6 p.m. followed by the introduction of four guests. Nikki also presented the Status of Women Moment.

Robin Smith presented the Z Rock Award to Linda Rhea for her many contributions to the club.

For the Inspirational Moment Mary Benoit read a poem by an unknown author.

Judy McNerny introduced the guest speaker for the evening – our own Linda Rhea. The program was entitled Why Just Survive When You Can THRIVE?. Since becoming a two-time breast cancer survivor, Linda is dedicating herself to being a motivational speaker for others who are facing this disease. But her ideas can be used by everyone to improve the quality of their lives. Her four key points were -

- 1) Believe in yourself
- 2) Have a support system
- 3) Establish daily practices – take care of your mind, body and spirit
- 4) Surround yourself with people you love and tell them.

She expanded on these four points so that “living every day your way creates the life you truly desire.”

Nikki asked for and received approval of the February minutes.

Mandy Ziegler said, “We have money.” She is working on the quarterly reports and will present them next month.

Judy reported the presence of 22 members tonight plus four guests.

Linda Corssmit reminded everyone to e-mail Robin Smith with their service hours or handwrite them tonight. Service hours should be reported every month to Robin. There are a number of service projects in May and volunteers are needed for the Teen Mom Graduation Party (call Linda Corssmit), the WOW fundraiser (call Carroll Allen), the Delores Project Dinner (call Linda Rhea), and the Excelsior fundraiser (call Carroll Allen).

Diane Twining reported for the Fundraising Committee and Advocacy. She indicated Jacki Sammons mailed off 30 lbs. of cell phones for conversion to emergency phones to be used by women possibly in danger.

Anyone wanting to attend The Little Shop of Horrors at the Boulder Dinner Theater needs to make reservations by 3/27. The committee is researching three different possible signature events – a high tea, a film festival and a glass slipper ball – reports in April.

More items are needed for the gift baskets we will sell at the Area 3 meeting. Judy McNerny said anyone wanting to donate items can deliver them to her home. There are three themed baskets – Rockies, Book Lovers and Gardeners. Items are needed by 4/1.

Diane explained King Sooper cards and how the club can buy them and then resell them to others as a fundraiser. Kathy Hyzer indicated her daughter's athletic clubs made a substantial amount selling these cards. The club agreed to move forward on the sale of King Soopers cards.

Diane reported on the fantastic news of the passage of CEDAW by our legislature. Kay Meyer was the very effective leader of this endeavor which we hope will be written up in The Zontian. Colorado is the 17th state to pass it. Now that this is accomplished the advocacy committee is looking over what can be worked on for the next two years.

Wendy Moraskie explained the tri-fold sign she produced that shows all the service projects the club sanctions. Two new service projects were added plus an estimate of the number of service hours performed so far this year. The goal for the year is 2,000 hours.

Nikki discussed the Area 3 meeting which is April 12th. The club will pay for new members to attend. It is a great way for new members to meet other members and to see how Zonta works outside of our own club.

Kathy Hyzer presented the Nominating Committee report. Nikki asked for additional nominations from the floor for each position and having received none the nominations were closed.

New officers are as follows –

President-Elect – Beth Mundell	Vice President – Kathy Hyzer
Secretary – Carroll Allen	Treasurer – Mandy Ziegler
Board Members are
Wendy Moraskie – 1 year term	Joetta Williams – 1 year term
Deb Heckart – 2 year term	Jennifer Koeller – 2 year term
New Nominating Committee –	Nikki Headlee
	Minnie Lundberg
	Cathy Conley

Kathy thanked this year's committee which consisted of Liz Cameron, Sheila Davis and Kathy Hyzer.

Judy McNerny reported on the changes to the By-Laws and Standing Rules. There was discussion on the policy to pay registration fees for new members to attend Area and District meetings. The members voted to pay for both meetings. And the members voted to accept all the other changes which were mostly very minor in nature and just kind of cleaned up the by-laws and rules.

The announcement was made that the May meeting will be the 3rd Thursday of the month – May 15. The 2nd Thursday of May there will be a fundraising dinner at Metro where our club will, hopefully, have good representation when we present and add our check for $33,155 to the Metro scholarship endowment fund. REMEMBER OUR MAY MEETING HAS BEEN CHANGED TO THE 15th.

Mary Benoit was the winner of the door prize.

Sheila Davis announced there has been an informal gathering for lunch every Friday which has been expanding. If you are interested in joining the Friday Bunch for Lunch please contact Sheila and she will add you to the e-mail list. She sends out notices every week indicating which restaurant is the meeting place for that week. People drop in and out as their schedule and/or the location allows. Come one – come all, it is a great way to get to know your fellow members.
