Service Grants for 2003-2004

Don't forget to attend the February dinner meeting, as representatives from the organizations receiving service awards will be joining us for dinner. They will receive their checks at this meeting, and also provide a short overview of their project and volunteer opportunities for club members.

A Big Thanks to everyone who contributed time and materials to the successful fundraising efforts last Wednesday at the AE Dinner.

It was also a treat to see Delores Lowery and Dorothy Swindt at our tables and contributing their time and jewelry to our Club's work.

We raised $782 in selling and auctioning merchandise and $99 for our Take A Chance raffle. (Out of 17 aprons we sold 5 and many pin holders.) Not included in those figures: we also made an additional $31 for Governor Mary Benoit's Amelia Bear and another apron & pot holder is being purchased by Elizabeth Clinton for $20.

So, given the smaller turnout at the AE Dinner and the fierce competition for attendee's money, I think our Club did rather well. Obviously the signed hockey stick was a major contributor too, bringing in just under $400! Everyone's efforts greatly contributed to our success and I wanted you all to hear it from me.

And I also wanted to thank the two ladies who purchased libations for me on Wednesday, I really needed that, it had been a rather busy couple of weeks! See you all in February. Diane

Mission Statement of Zonta Club of Denver:

The Members of Zonta Club of Denver are committed to the support and well-being of our community, our club, and ourselves, by improving the status of women and children and upholding the Objects of Zonta International.

President of Zonta Club of Denver: Evie Ashmore

Editor: Julie Bradley

Governor of District 12: Mary Benoit

President's Message for February . . .

My how time flies. I look at the calendar and realize that my year as your President is halfway over, and I have 128 days until I retire from my job with USDA. Wow!

At our February Meeting, Sheila Davis and her Committee will introduce us to our service grant award winners. We will be able to hear the wonderful things that these worthwhile organizations do. In addition, our recipient for the Young Women in Public Affairs award will attend. Linda Rhea and her Committee chose this young lady. Thanks, ladies.

Two new members joined our Club and one will be inducted in February. Joetta Williams will be formally inducted. Please join me in welcoming her to our Club. Anne Taylor who joined in December moved to Michigan as her husband received a very good job offer. The note she wrote indicated she hoped to find a Zonta Club in her new home. We are sorry to lose Anne, but wish her well.

On February 10, a number of Zonta sisters attended the CWLC Dinner to honor our very own Julie Bradley. It was a fun event! In addition, Linda Rhea was also honored by another organization she belongs to. Good job ladies!

In this month's Smoke Signal, you will see the article that appeared in the Winter 2004 Edition of the "Metropolis" - the alumni magazine for Metropolitan State College. This piece was done as a result of our recent contribution thanks to provisions in the Will of Edna Jean Hershey. Because of this, we should receive good positive exposure to the community.

Don't forget that March 8 is Zonta Rose Day!

In addition, the annual reminder of funds available to help long-term Zonta members who have a real need for financial assistance due to age, illness, or other circumstances is included in this Smoke Signal. In keeping with the broadened provisions of Edna Jean Hershey's Will to include Zontians and former Zontians in Colorado, I have prepared a letter to each President of all Zonta Clubs in Colorado. Please take time to read so that you will know about this should you ever need it.

I hope that you are planning to attend the Zonta International Convention to be held in New York City - July 3-8, 2004. Please see your copy of "The Zontian" magazine. I encourage all to attend!

Another event that is fast approaching is our Fund Raiser planned for November 2004. As you know Diane Twining and her Committee have worked very hard at outlining our objectives in our "Home Party" event. We all need to support this planned event, as the proceeds from this will be used to fund our future service grants. We cannot continue to use the interest income on our investments to fund our service grants

UPCOMING SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE DINNERS

The Ronald McDonald House in Denver provides a "home away from home" for families whose children are being treated at Children's Hospital. It's located at 1300 E. 21st Ave, Denver, CO 80203, just a couple of blocks from the hospital. Their phone number is 303-832-2667. Families have individual hotel rooms for sleeping and relaxing, and there are two beautiful, very large kitchens and eating areas located on the 2nd and 3rd floors. Individuals can fix their own meals, or be served by volunteer organizations such as ours. The Zonta Club of Denver serves dinner for approximately 30-35 people in a buffet style format the third Monday of each month. Volunteers are asked to arrive at 5:30pm for set up, and serving begins at 6:00pm.

The Zonta monthly coordinator's role is to contact other volunteers who offered to prepare and serve dinner that month, plan a menu, and determine who brings each dish. Volunteers' names will be identified here in the Smoke Signal, on the service opportunities clipboard brought to the monthly dinner meetings, and through Sheila Davis. Zontians have found this service event to be one of the most rewarding activities we do, so please sign up if you have not been a part of this project in the past!

Volunteers for February are Shari Dorton, Diane Twining, Evie Ashmore, and Mary Benoit. So far, Mandy Ziegler is the only volunteer for March. Three more women are needed. Thanks to Evie Ashmore, Linda Rhea, Kathy Hyzer, and Nikki Headlee for preparing and serving at the January dinner.

The Gathering Place

Margaret Fomer has volunteered to coordinate activities for club members at The Gathering Place. Watch for upcoming opportunities to serve lunch at Denver's only daytime shelter for women.

Personal Safety Skills Training

Linda Corssmit will be working with the Rape Assistance and Awareness Program coordinator to schedule a safety skills class for Zonta members. More information to follow next month.

Save Toiletries and Other Small Items

Now is a good time to begin saving all of the small toiletry items received at hotels. Our annual Mother's Day basket project is coming up in May. After Valentine's Day sales are also a great opportunity to pick up candles, soaps, perfumes, etc. We may also be able to donate items to The Gathering Place in the future, so start shopping now!

NEW BREAST CANCER STAMP

This is an instance where so little from each of us can do so much!

ALL RIGHT EVERYONE, Lets do this!

It would be wonderful if 2004 were the year a cure for breast cancer was found!!!! The notion that we could raise $35 million by buying a book of stamps is powerful!

As you may be aware, the US Postal Service recently released its new "Fund the Cure" stamp to help fund breast cancer research. The stamp was designed by Ethel Kessler of Bethesda, Maryland. It is important that we take a stand against this disease that affects so many of our Mothers, Sisters and Friends.

Instead of the normal 37 cents for a stamp, this one costs 40 cents. The additional 3 cents will go to breast cancer research. A "normal" book costs $7.40. This one is only $8.00. It takes a few minutes in line at the Post Office and means so much. If all stamps are sold, it will raise an additional $35,000,000 for this vital research.

Just as important as the money is our support. What a statement it would make if the stamp outsold the lottery this week. What a statement it would make that we care. I would urge you to do two things TODAY.

1. Go out and purchase some of these stamps.
2. E-mail your friends to do the same. We all know women and their families whose lives are turned upside-down by breast cancer. It takes so little to do so much in this drive. I think we can all afford the additional 60 cents that a book of this stamp costs. Please help & pass this on.

Hi Everyone!
Did any of you happen to watch Dateline tonight? The whole hour was devoted to the selling of young girls into "sex slavery" in Cambodia. These girls were as young as 5! They perform "yum yum" (oral sex) and "bang bang" (intercourse).

There is a complete transcript as well as video's on www.dateline.msnbc.com. I encourage you to look at it ASAP.

UNICEF is one of the organizations working on this project. This whole project is screaming for help! This is something Zonta should get actively involved with. If you feel that this is a project you can embrace I urge you to email Chicago and to forward this to as many Zontians as possible.

Please let me know your feelings.
Yours in Zonta,
Sally Rankin

Speaking of Science/ Perspectives

People make the Ice an experience By Karen Murphy

On Oct. 2, I stepped off a C-141 onto the continent of Antarctica for the very first time. A new found friend told me not to hurry when I got off the plane, but stop and turn full circle. The ice sparkled, Mount Erebus was puffing, the air was crisp on my cheeks and the military plane I just got off was enormous. I was awed, excited and scared at the same time. It was my first time here and I knew that I would never experience these moments again.

A first timer. We're a little embarrassed to be one because when others refer to us as such it's not a compliment. We're the tourists in town. We show child-like awe at everything around us with our mouths gaping at the beauty of the landscape. We are judgmental, arrogant, believing we could do things better because we are smart, educated and experienced beyond our positions — so we may think.

In a little more than seven weeks on the Ice I've grown to love all the good things about being new. I am still wowed every time I come out of my dorm and see a glimpse of the Royal Society Range. And I cannot wait to see how Winter Quarters Bay will look when the vessel arrives. I cannot imagine it now and I know this will be the only season I can say that. We all need to acknowledge and appreciate the excitement of the first season and hope others who have been here before can, at times, remember how the first season felt.

To appreciate being in Antarctica for the first time or to recapture the feeling of the first time, we must be open to remembering all the memorable first times in our life—going to school, making friends, moving away from home, falling in love, making love. Other firsts might include losing a pet, losing a loved one, getting divorced, almost losing a loved one through illness. One common thread to these experiences is emotion.

Emotion cements memories. There are no events remembered well, joyful or painful, that do not stir strong feelings. My first time in Antarctica is and will be no different. I will always remember my first look at Mount Erebus, penguins walking on the runway and seals lazily lying around on the ice looking like slugs. However, more than any scenery or wildlife, I will remember all the remarkable people I have met—people who have given of themselves generously without a second thought.

I am fortunate to work in the housing office because it allows me to meet everyone on station, from those who are new like me to those who have come for many seasons. I have met so many smart, funny, creative and caring people.

People who on their day off give tours to newcomers, those who offer classes in their free time to share music, exercise, dance or the history of Antarctica. And, those who simply do something nice for you.

There are so many. The person half my age who cared enough to ask me how I was doing when he knew I might be having a rough time; the person who made me a CD just because; the person who gave me his phone card when he learned I hadn't brought one; the people who wished me a happy birthday and those who trucked out to the sea ice runway with me and walked back together because they knew that was what I wanted to do on my birthday; the person who sang me Happy Birthday in Swedish, the person who carved me a penguin, the person who nicknamed me “Karry-On.” There are so many more.

Just three weeks ago, I was calling this Papillon On Ice, in reference to an old movie where a guy is sent to a prison camp on a tropical island. Now I know leaving will be poignant.

In the end, we go to a place for the first time, but what we find are these people.

Karen Murphy works for McMurdo Station's housing office and said one of the goals still on her to-do list is to hike to the top of Observation Hill, just outside of McMurdo. So far, she's completed the Armitage Loop, which is a flagged trail on the sea ice from McMurdo to New Zealand's Scott Base on the other side of Ob Hill.

Request for Information

Dear Members of the Zonta Club of Denver,

We are writing our annual reminder letter to once again let you know that the Zonta Club of Denver has a substantial charitable fund that could be available to help qualified members of your Zonta Club. Please share the information in this letter with your members.

Edna Jean Hershey was a long-standing member of the Zonta Club of Denver. When she died in April of 1977, her will provided for a sum of money to be given to the Zonta Club of Denver to be used to help long-term Zonta members who have a real need for financial assistance due to age illness, or other circumstances.

Although the funds were originally available only to help members of the Zonta Club of Denver, through court approval, the scope of the gift has been broadened so that if all of the funds available have not been used to help members of the Zonta Club of Denver, assistance can be given to other Zontians and former Zontians in Colorado.

If you know of anyone who meets the Zonta membership qualifications set forth on the enclosed request for information, and who you think has a real need for financial assistance due to age, illness, or other circumstances, please complete and mail the request for information as soon as possible. We will send to you an application for funding. Please note information that is provided in the application concerning the individual needing assistance will be known only to the members of the Hershey Charitable Trust Committee and the President and Treasurer of the Zonta Club of Denver who are responsible for requesting and distributing funds.

Sincerely,
Evie Ashmore, President
Zonta Club of Denver

Please send me a Hershey Charitable Trust application for funding. I know of an individual who is elderly, ill or needy, who has an actual need for financial assistance and who meets one of the Zonta membership criteria below:

1. Persons who have been or were in the past, members of the Zonta Club of Denver for ten years or more.
2. Persons who have been, or were in the past, members of any Zonta Club in District XII, Area 3 for ten years or more.
3. Persons who have been, or were in the past, members of any Zonta Club in the State of Colorado for ten years or more.
4. Persons who are currently members of the Zonta Club of Denver and who have been members of that club for five years or more.
5. Persons who are currently members of any Zonta Club in the State of Colorado who have been members of that club for five years or more.

I understand that because of requirements imposed by the Internal Revenue code on the Trust, the intended recipient will be required to submit financial information to qualify for assistance, but that such information will be circulated only to members of the Hershey Charitable Trust Committee and the President and Treasurer of the Zonta Club of Denver, and will be kept strictly confidential.

Please send the application to:

The Zonta Club of Denver and Metro State share a dedication to improving the lives of women—and that's a good thing for Metro students who are also single mothers.

Founded March 11, 1927, the club has championed improvement in the status of women to the tune of more than $2 million in donations over the years and countless hours of volunteer service. It's chartered under Zonta International, which boasts 1,188 clubs and approximately 35,000 members in 71 countries.

Every year since 1988, the Zonta Club of Denver has funded several scholarships to Metro of varying amounts. And in June, the club initiated an endowed scholarship with a gift of more than $29,000, thanks to provisions in the will of Edna Jean Hershey—a member from 1935 until her death in 1977.

Hershey was born in Denver in 1904. She earned several degrees from various Colorado universities and worked for the Denver Public Schools for more than 25 years. Her will outlined provisions for a charitable trust to assist needy Zontians—as club members are called. However, according to Evie Ashmore, president of the Denver club, there weren't a lot of requests from members for financial assistance. "The folks were not coming out to the woodwork," Ashmore says.

Zonta didn't want the money to go to waste, so club members asked the courts to approve a revision to the trust's directive. They requested and received permission to use any excess money for scholarships every three years—scholarships that are given to Metro State students in Hershey's honor.

"We're committed to serving the community," says Ashmore, adding that Metro's downtown location and dedication to the many "ladies going there" makes the relationship worthwhile. The club often includes new of its scholars' progress in newsletters and invites them to club events. "It lets folks know that there are really deserving gals out there who are making it, but need some help," Ashmore says, "As corny as it sounds, it's wonderful that we can be a part of that."
