ZCD Contributes To Help Acid Violence Victims

Zonta Club of Denver (ZCD) donated $500 to the Saving Face Foundation at ZCD's May meeting. The foundation was formed by the makers of 2012 Oscar winning documentary Saving Face to help survivors of acid violence in Pakistan. Its mission aligns with Zonta's goal of advancing the status of women.

The March screening by ZCD of Saving Face was part of the 2012 VOICES Film Festival, a six day Denver Film Society festival that also commemorated International Women's Day.

The fundraiser raised over $10,000 with a reception and panel discussion with film director Daniel Junge and co-producer Ali

Greenberg following the screening. The film focuses on a British-Pakistani plastic surgeon who does reconstructive surgery for Pakistani acid attack victims and follows two of the women as they grapple with what happened to them.

Ali Greenberg, Saving Face producer, accepts donation from ZCD President Kathy and President-Elect Wendy

Saving Face is also a story of hope about women helping each other, including a female Pakistani lawyer who took the case of one victim and managed to convict the perpetrator, a significant outcome in a society still struggling with changing standards.

This film is a collaboration of Denver-based Junge and Sharmeen Obaid-Chinoy, an International Emmy-winning Pakistani filmmaker. The two filmmakers felt their shared passion for storytelling made them a great team and both regard Saving Face as their best documentary to date.

After witnessing the victim's struggles, the filmmakers hope the film will help the effort to change how acid violence is viewed in Pakistan. They established the Saving Face Foundation to offer financial aid to victims.

Linda Rhea Elected to Toastmasters International Office

ZCD member and motivational speaker Linda Rhea is now Lt. Governor Marketing Elect District 26 2012-2013 at Toastmasters International.

J. David Lampe, Toastmasters International District 26 Foothills Division Governor, said "I've worked with Linda on several projects in Toastmasters including the District Conference where Linda was the Conference Chair. Linda does a great job with organization. Linda has also been very helpful with my public speaking. She has given me tips on how to book speaking engagements and how to improve my presentations. I highly recommend Linda!"

Thanks Offered to ZCD and Members

I would like to express my thanks for the phone calls and cards after my little accident in my garage. It was so comforting to hear your voices and read the cards. I am doing better and I think my rib is healed. At least I can cough, laugh and sneeze without hurting.

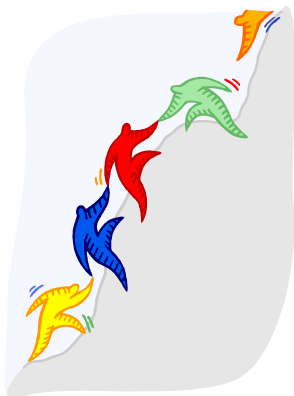

Thanks again to all of you.
~Minnie

I do not go into the DFS on a regular basis at the moment, so found my GINORMOUS card last week. Thank you so much, it made me chuckle, it's so big. You all are the best!

Project WISE Workshop Builds Community Leaders

Project WISE, a provider of mental health services, mentoring, leadership and advocacy skills development for low income Denver-area women that received 2012 funding from ZCD, recently hosted the Inspiration Workshop, its annual Women’s Leadership Training Academy. The workshop focused on leadership development.

The Women’s Leadership Program at Project WISE is designed to increase individual empowerment, build connections, increase skills needed for personal and community leadership, and encourage community service involvement among low-income women.

Highlights of the Inspiration Workshop included a presentation by ZCD member and former state legislator, Alice Borodkin. Participants also co-facilitated sessions, as well as delivering two self-selected inspirational readings throughout the day. One woman commented, “We are all such different ladies here in the room, but we have more in common than I would have thought coming here this morning.”

Among the day’s sessions that sparked spirited discussion was an exercise titled Myths of Leadership. Participants were asked to respond to statements including: “Having a leadership position makes you a leader,” “When I think of people who are leaders, I think about people who I know,” and “I consider myself a leader.”

In addition to participants, Project Wise staff, board member LaShonda Kennedy and volunteers also participated in the workshop. Lunch was provided by ZCD members. Rayna McGinnis Photography donated its services for the day. Planned Parenthood of the Rocky Mountains donated space for the meeting.

Project WISE recently launched a special new Tribute campaign with a goal to raise $10,000 by June 30 from individuals in metro Denver to support its services. To learn more about how special people in our community can be honored, visit denverprojectwise.org.

Founded in 1995, Project WISE works to overcome personal and economic barriers to self-sufficiency among women with low incomes. Through coaching, mentoring, counseling and community involvement, Project WISE helps participants build the skills needed for personal and economic advancement.

Project C.U.R.E. Kit for Kids Shipped to Burundi

At least one ZCD Kit for Kids was delivered by Project C.U.R.E. to Burundi where civil war has compounded an economic crisis. The Kamgenge military hospital in Bujumbura, with 15 buildings and 200 beds, receives no government funding and relies on patient fees to cover expenses, but essentially serves all 8.6 million people of Burundi.

Infectious and parasitic diseases, especially malaria, remain huge health problems. Despite beginnings of political stability in Burundi, mortality rates are high.

Kits for Kids and other medical supplies and equipment delivered by Project C.U.R.E. are critical to helping decrease poverty, inequality, and instability by improving the health of Burundi’s citizens.

2012-2013 Officers and Committees

Members of ZCD
2012-2013 Board

Dear Members:

My goal in this process was to make it transparent. So this list was compiled by soliciting everyone's preferences, then sorting it all out with a couple of experienced Zontians (whose names shall be withheld to protect the innocent) and a little wine.

I'll wager there are some errors due to my mis-typing. There are also likely to be some alterations based on changing needs, both the club's and some members'

This is not chiseled in stone, and except for a couple of copies, it's not even on paper! Please let me know what I need to fix to make this work for you, the committees and the club.

Record-breaking garage sale brings in $1,338.40 for ZCD service projects!

Committee Reports

Fundraising

The Fundraising Committee would like to thank the club for the tremendous outpouring of participation in our sale this past weekend. We postponed because of rain on the 19th and were fortunate to have a marvelous Saturday on the 26th for our 'rain' date.

We recorded over 70% of the club participating in providing items to sell, pre-pricing items before the event, and selling the day of our garage sale! Thank you to all of you who were able to help make this a record-breaking garage sale. We collected $1,338.40 for our items sold - and only had one expense - our ad in the Denver Post. Fantastic job everyone! We can count it as a job well done. We also want to thank The Salvation Army for getting us in Tuesday morning after the sale to pick up our leftovers - as we had to cancel our previous pickup date and they were booked through the weekend. We already have some ideas for next year's sale. This year we had two members bake zucchini bread and lemon bread for our workers - and ended up giving samples to some of the purchasers at our garage sale— who kindly donated extra for the item to eat. Next year—we sell some? Also ideas about possible flower pots for sale with petunias etc. in them - for less than they sell them already potted for color on porches...we all have some old pots that we could donate for this purpose. If anyone has other ideas based on their experiences at the sale, let us know!

The new fundraising committee will be getting an email from me shortly to start our first meetings for next year's film event (see below). Our first order of business will be to get our list together for sponsorships and possible caterers to get donated food and other items for next year and get those letters out! Some of our sponsors last year noted that we were too late in getting in our sponsorship letters and we intend to get started right away. Please be looking for your email from me to set up our first meeting.

Thanks!

Annual ZCD Garage Sale

Doug, Cynthia, Wendy, Judy and Nancy still smiling at the end of the garage sale

Thank you to everyone who was able to help with the annual garage sale! In particular, a huge bunch of gratitude goes to Cynthia H. for offering her garage, front yard, and significant personal time to help make this annual event successful.

As many know, the event was originally scheduled for Saturday, May 19th...the same day that the Denver metro area received a boatload of much needed rain. The sale was postponed to the following Saturday, May 26, which meant that Cynthia was without her garage for 7 days...what a trooper she is and so appreciated!

People began stopping by to shop a good 30 minutes before we were ready for them, and many folks throughout the day mentioned they came this year after the great stuff on sale last year. Cynthia's tireless (and always cheerful) nephew Doug helped from beginning to end, including setting up the book table to perfection. If there was an Honorary ZCD Member Medal...he'd be wearing it around his neck. Doug was assisted at the book table by a "repeat customer" who came early to look specifically for books. This nice customer learned a lot about Zonta and did not leave empty handed as a collector of "classic novels."

The children's playhouse went to a nearby neighbor and Zontians helped deliver it! Oddly, the bigger furniture items, usually the first to go, did not sell...but no doubt someone who shops at the Salvation Army is happily loading them into their trucks.

Many shoppers received flyers with more detailed information on ZCD and may attend future meetings. Additionally, many learned about the good work of ZCD and "rounded up" their purchases as the funds were going to a good cause.

Although off to a shaky start, the ZCD Annual Garage sale was a big success...again, thanks to everyone who gave so much of their time and energy to help in so many ways.

—Beth

Treasurer

Wow we have had a busy year. First I want to thank everyone for their patience and assistance while I have learned the Treasurer position over the last year. A special thank you to Nikki and Kathy for their guidance and hand-holding.

Member International Directory

While reviewing and submitting our annual club dues to Zonta International, I noted that several of our members have old contact information on file with ZI. It is easy to update your contact information online. If you do not have computer access, I am happy to assist you to verify what they have on file and update what is needed.

To verify and update your membership information, go to www.zonta.org, select "member resources" at the top of the page, select the blue "update your member profile" button on the left side of that page, enter your login name and password.

If you have never logged into your ZI account, or do not know your information, just select that option on the screen and it will walk you through the process to retrieve this information or get you set up for the first time. If you have problems logging in – email webmaster@zonta.org and they are super helpful.

Club Financial Audit

Now that the fiscal year has ended, it is audit time. The Audit Committee, Treasurer, and our Club Accountant, Elaine Gilley, will be completing the audit over the next couple weeks. Remember, all monthly financials are posted on our club website should you want to review them. I am also happy to provide a hard copy to you upon request.

Women Making a Difference

Journalist Mae Azango went undercover for Front Page Africa, Liberia's leading investigative daily, to investigate a secret women's circumcision ritual.

After Azango spoke to women about the difficulties they faced in adulthood because they'd been subjected to cutting as children, she decided that even if the practice is accepted by traditional leaders, "It's a violation of [a girl's] rights.... If you grab her [and cut her], just as you grab her and rape her, it is a crime."

She then wrote about it and received death threats.

Azango's risks paid off.

Partly as a result of her reports, the government recently announced that it was banning all the secret society's activities, including cutting.

She said, "I am a journalist because there are a lot of people suffering. Who hears them? No one, unless I go and record their voices."

President's Message

Happy New (Zonta) Year! It's going to be another good year for Zonta Club of Denver—our 86th. I look forward to learning a lot about Zonta and each of my fellow members, and I so appreciate the support I already feel from all of you. I will count on each of you to keep me on track this year. I expect to spend this year asking a lot of questions, many of which will be, "what do you need to make that work?" Then I'll try to get it for you. I hope it will be a great year for Zonta Club of Denver and for each member. I hope each meeting and activity can renew and refresh our commitment to the mission. I hope we can each look for new things to learn and grow and new ways to get things done. Zonta Club of Denver needs to "work" for each member if it's going to "work" for the at-risk women we serve. This year we welcomed four new members into our Club. Amanda, Helen, Jeanette and Laurie, we are so glad you've joined us. I look forward to hearing what you hope for from your membership with ZCD. I hope we can each look for new members to invite into our Club. The next month will be a time of transition and preparation as we set up the 2012-13 club structure, file appropriate documents with new names and start work on our new committees. If you're a new member, ask lots of questions. Okay, that goes for "experienced" members, too. I don't believe Zonta Club of Denver is a "one-size-fits-all" thing. Each of us has unique skills and talents, and unique responsibilities at work and home. Let's keep being creative about how to tap into those skills and talents. Let's make it work.

—Wendy

President Wendy

P.S. ZCD secretary Julie Walker will be preparing agendas for the monthly club and Board meetings. If you have an item that needs to be added to either agenda, please get it to Julie (with a copy to Mary B, Judy A and Wendy) by 5 pm Monday of meeting week.

DOMESTIC DIVA

Spicy-Hot Caribbean Chicken

- | | |
|--|---|
| 4 green onions, sliced | 2 chopped fresh or 2-tsp. dried thyme leaves |
| 2 jalapeno chillies, seeded & chopped* | ½ t salt |
| 1/3 cup fresh lime juice (not bottled, but can substitute lemon juice) | ¼ t ground allspice |
| ¼ cup honey | ¼ t nutmeg |
| 2 T vegetable oil | 6 boneless, skinless chicken breast halves (approx. 1 ½ pounds) |

Place all ingredients except chicken in food processor or blender. Cover & process for 20 seconds or until smooth.

Pour over chicken in a gallon zip-lock bag. Mix to coat chicken and place bag w/ chicken in a shallow dish and refrigerate at least two but no more than six hours.

Remove chicken from marinade; boil reserved marinade. Grill chicken over medium coals 15 to 20 minutes, brushing frequently with marinade until juices run clear, about 20 minutes. Remove chicken from grill, cover and let sit for 10 to 15 minutes. Serves 6. (Recipe can be doubled to have extra marinade to use for dipping sauce.)

*Heat can be adjusted by reducing the amount of jalapenos.

 ½ bone-in, skin on chicken breasts can be substituted for larger and more flavorful servings. Indirect grilling method with slightly longer grilling time is suggested.

"ZCD needs to 'work' for each member if it's going to 'work' for the at-risk women we serve."

Thank you for your support and participation of the 2nd annual Women+Film, VOICES Film Festival. There are plenty of ways to spend your time and resources and we are very grateful that you chose VOICES. One of my favorite words is the Nguni word Ubuntu, which means – I am, because we are. It certainly applies here, as we wouldn't have a Festival without your involvement and enthusiasm!

Over the 6-day event, the Festival welcomed an audience of over 2,200 and held numerous receptions, Salons and Q&A sessions in conjunction with the films. The documentary and feature films this year, were a diverse line-up with multiple countries and languages represented. Including the Academy Award winning documentary Saving Face, with Daniel Junge, Sharmeen Obaid-Chinoy, the Colorado based team and the Oscar in attendance. The festival opened with the acclaimed documentary from Rory Kennedy, Ethel, straight from its premiere at Sundance. We were also pleased to screen the controversial Invisible War, also a hot ticket coming straight off its' Sundance premiere. The Festival screened a spectrum of exceptional, critically acclaimed film and video works in order to celebrate the extraordinary films by, for and about women. We hope that the Festival will encourage more filmmakers' to tell these remarkable stories and that through diverse storytelling we are building a community, where participants will be inspired to take action as well.

Included here, are links to a couple of articles and mentions of the Festival and a link to our Vimeo page where the Mobile Film Fest shorts and the Filmmaker interviews can be watched.
