The Zonta Club of Denver (ZCD) has sponsored a child at the Crossroads Springs Institute (CSI), an orphan care center and school funded by Crossroads Springs Africa, Inc.

CSI provides support to children in the Hamisi, Kenya, area who have lost one or both parents to HIV/AIDS.

Crossroads Springs Africa was the dream of its founder, the late Dr. Meshack Isiaho, one he made a reality for the orphan children of his village. Dr. Isiaho’s work is carried on by his wife, Helen Isiaho, who says, “Our vision is to provide health, nutrition, careful handling, and good education to the children so that they become happy learners, develop skills to support themselves and help others, and accomplished last year were:

- building a well for water near the school
- beginning construction of the girls’ dormitory become a source of economic and leadership strength for Kenya.”

Crossroads Springs Africa works through networking alliances with other stakeholders to help the children grow into self-reliant, responsible adults.

The ZCD sponsorship funds will go to the Crossroads education fund—for food, clothing, education and loving care provided by the local community.

The Institute has 367 girls and boys from early childhood development through grade eight. Several CSI graduates are in a secondary school.

Some of the projects the Institute

- growing the library with donated books and three computers—the library now has tables and shelves!
- the poultry project is self-supporting

Crossroads Springs Africa has its headquarters in East Aurora in upstate New York, near Buffalo. Its website, <http://www.crossroadsspringsafrica.org/>, provides more information about its work and ways donors can help.

June Club Meeting Details

Zontians from around the world at 2012 Convention

Where: Spero Winery
3316 West 64th Avenue
Denver, CO 80221

When: Thursday, June 13, 2013
6:00 to 8:00 pm – Social Hour and Dinner

Menu: Italian chicken or beef

Cost: $30.00

Greeters: All ZCD members

RESERVATIONS: ALL—RSVP to Judy Allen with your menu choice before 10am Monday, June 10, 2013, at 720-286-5012 or email her at Judith.allen@ch2m.com. Don't call her home phone or use personal email. If you have a special diet request please let Judy know.

Call or email your guest names also. Remember, a first time visitor is a guest of the club, but if you have a guest who has attended a previous meeting, you or the guest must pay for dinner.

PROGRAM: Introduction to Zonta

Invite a friend or acquaintance who has heard you talk about Zonta, whether or not she is interested in joining.

Wendy has promised to keep the meeting short so we will have time to mingle with the guests.

Bone up on your Zonta knowledge so you can share information. Bring an old ZI magazine to share. Be ready to tell a story about experiences—at a ZI convention, District Conference, or Area Meeting, perhaps—that you found exciting or informative.

Happy June birthdays to Kathy, Julie B and Helen!

SPREAD THE WORD

Our June meeting is a great opportunity to bring a friend along who may have heard you talk about Zonta, but isn't quite sure she wants to plunge in and become a member yet. We all get to be Zonta Ambassadors that night, as we conduct our monthly meeting, but with a lighter agenda. We'll enjoy hors d'oeuvres and wine tastings and use the opportunity to "show and tell" why we share our spare time with this organization. Your co-worker may be a good person to invite, or your neighbor, or a yoga class-mate, or .... And who knows? This "Introduction to Zonta" may become an annual tradition for the June meeting.

Committee Reports

Fundraising

Thanks to the entire club for another successful garage sale. We sold all our furniture (except two pieces that are going on Craig's List) and had a great day besides. Thanks to all those who provided items for the sale, who helped price, or who manned the sale on the day! We were able to make $1,310 after expense of an ad in the paper and had a great time doing it! This year we raised $9,000 at the Day of Film, $1,300 at the garage sale and $150 at our Bead for Life sale in the fall. Thank you all who were a part of any of these events.

The Fundraising committee (new and old are welcome) will be meeting sometime in late June or July at Nikki Headlee's home in Watkins to look at the items we received from the dismantling of the Zonta Chapel at University Hospital. We have an altar, a font, pews, the 'Tree of Life', Zonta doors and an organ from that chapel. We also have donated paintings that are being stored at Mary Benoit's house.

We will be discussing ways to sell (or donate) some of these art works and other pieces so that Nikki's and Mary's garages do not become their permanent resting places!

There will be an email going out shortly to committee members with the date and time for this meeting. We can carpool out to Nikki's to save gas and the environment!

Thank you!

—Julie

PR and Communications

Katie and Julie

Congratulations and thank you to the Zonta Club of Denver for another successful yard sale. We collected $1350 for our projects. Zonta rocks!

I want to thank the members of the PR committee - Judy Mc, Katie, and Wendy - for all their hard work in doing directory, the Smoke Signal, and all the PR pieces for the film event and the yard sale. Thank you to everyone else who helped me to learn about and do activities that relate to PR. Everyone I asked was very helpful. It was an interesting experience. I am sure Katie will do a spectacular job for the next year and I wish her all the best.

—Cynthia

Service

I am very excited about being the Service Chairman this year. I will be contacting my committee members soon to set a date for our first meeting in July. Olette organized a wonderful burrito bar for

The Delores Project dinner on May 19. Everyone raved about the food and came back for seconds and thirds. Thanks to Julie B., Nikki, Mary Lou, Nancy, Jeanette, Evie, and Olette for their participation.

Jeanette is doing a fantastic job heading the Jane M. Klausman scholarship committee.

The judges helping Jeanette are Robin Jennings, Beth Mundell, Laurie Peterson, and Evie Ashmore. They are hard at work reading all the scholarship applications.

—Nancy

“Everyone raved about Olette’s burrito bar at the May Delores Project dinner.”

Membership

If you would like the committee to send an invitation to the June meeting to someone, please contact Mary B, or Kate Linscott.

Membership will have a meeting in July to begin picking speakers, and other information the committee will be doing.

I will notify members of the time and place.

Treasurer

We are at the end of our fiscal year. The audit committee and treasurer have met with our accountant, Elaine Gilley, for the pre-audit. Our books are in good order and our assets have grown under the management of Sharkey, Howes and Javer. Our financials are posted for all to see on our website in the members- only section.

I am pleased to pass the books on to our next treasurer, Kathy Hyzer, who will do a great job. But she needs your cooperation. I have found it frustrating that requests for reimbursement have often not been timely, receipts are lost, and in many instances no voucher is submitted and that task has been left up to the treasurer. While I know none of us would "cheat," it just is not good business to reimburse without receipts. I am urging Kathy not to reimburse unless a voucher has been filled out and receipts are attached. I would also suggest when you complete a voucher, that you look at the approved budget and what category should be charged. That has mostly been left up to the treasurer. That should not be her job. The task of treasurer is not easy so she does need your help.

—Your grumpy fill-in treasurer, Nikki

Advocacy

"Auspiciousness"

Dictionaries define it as "attended by favorable circumstances – marked by success – prosperous – fortunate." I recently became intrigued with the word when I read a book in which the author talked about the "auspiciousness" of women – specifically the lack thereof. He was discussing women in India who found themselves widows – often at a very young age. When that happens, the author says, women in that Hindu society lose their "auspiciousness." In times past, these women often chose to join their husbands on the funeral pyre, a practice known as Suttee. The word derives from the Hindu goddess Sati, wife of the god Shiva who immolated herself after her father insulted her husband, and the word "Sati" has evolved to mean "good woman" or "chaste wife." Greeks believed the practice had been adopted to discourage young wives from poisoning their older husbands.

Under British rule, Suttee in India was outlawed in the last century, but reports of the practice continued. Unfortunately, outlawing Suttee did not change the "status" of these widows – they simply went to live in hovels in the back alleys, where apparently large numbers of them reside to this day. The most recent account of Suttee occurred in 1987 when an 18 year old woman joined her husband in death by fire. Opinions were split – half the country applauded her actions, but the other half contended that the girl, Roop Kanwar, was murdered. If it is true that widows are still not considered “attended by favorable circumstances” by their families and communities, then it is not hard to believe a young woman would choose a quick death over lingering poverty. Perhaps some Zonta “edutainment” would be useful in changing people’s minds about women’s “auspiciousness” in India! During the past year your Advocacy Committee wrote articles about Advocacy and tried to keep you updated as to legislative matters concerning women. We featured two speakers at our March meeting – Amy Blackwell and Chaer Robert – and we collected your loose change at club meetings for UNICEF. During the upcoming year, we will write about Advocacy efforts in Denver and around the world. Realizing that the ZCD is bipartisan while believing that Zontians need to hear all available information in order to make educated decisions about the issues at hand, we will keep you informed about Colorado legislative matters. We will be supporting the new Area 3 “Zonta Says No” campaign for the 16 days of nonviolence in November, 2013, and we will be collaborating on advocacy with other agencies, like AAUW and the Women’s Lobby. We will also be endeavoring to guide you into “everyday advocacy” through articles like the one above about women in India, because every woman on planet Earth deserves to feel “auspicious”!

AREA 3 PLANS ZONTA SAYS NO EVENT

Area 3 of Zonta District 12, headed by Mary Benoit and Area 3 director Debbie Squires, is beginning to plan a Zonta Says No event to be held the evening of November 25, the first of the 16 Days of Activism against Gender Violence.

Recent reports of violence against women have shocked the world, including the brutal rapes of young girls in India, and the rescue of three

Cleveland women held captive for years, and used as sexual slaves.

Zonta International President Lynn McKenzie recently reminded Zontians that, although it's hard to feel that you can make a difference individually, everyone's actions do make a difference, no matter how small. She urges Zontians to become the voice for those women and girls who, for whatever reason, cannot be heard. Put November 25 on your calendar and ask Mary how you can become a voice against violence.

The event will be one of many actions by Zonta clubs and districts around the world that month to illustrate the collective commitment of Zonta's nearly 30,000 members to preventing and ending violence against women and girls.

“Zonta is committed to preventing and ending violence against women and girls.”

Sometime in your life, hope that you might see one starved man, the look on his face when the bread finally arrives. Hope that you might have baked it or bought or even kneaded it yourself. For that look on his face, for your meeting his eyes across a piece of bread, you might be willing to lose a lot, or suffer a lot, or die a little, even.

ZONTA SCHOLARSHIPS CHANGE LIVES

At the garage sale, a woman approached Cynthia. She told Cynthia that she had been cleaning things out and came across a newspaper clipping about her, many years ago, being awarded a Zonta scholarship. She was planning to throw the clipping away until she saw a notice that "women of a certain age" were holding a garage sale to benefit the projects of a Zonta club.

Rather than discarding the clipping she decided to bring it to the garage sale and tell us her story.

She was the oldest of six children. She used the $100 scholarship to start her post-secondary education at a community college. She continued her education from there, eventually earning two masters degrees! She has been a teacher, including at Overland High School. She wanted us to know that scholarships we give can indeed have a significant impact on a young woman's life.

The newspaper clipping is reproduced below and she was Joy Haines, pictured on the left.

For those who are curious, the Zonta Club of Pomona Valley no longer exists, at least not by that name. It was in the Pomona, California area where Ms Haines' high school still exists.

NEW MEMBER

Olette, born in Greeley, Colorado, has had the opportunity to live and work all over the world. She loves living in new places and learning new cultures. She grew up in the Panama Canal Zone and did not realize how different the culture was from living in the US until she returned to the states to attend the University of Colorado in Boulder. From that moment on, she has had the travel bug. Her joke is that she keeps her cars longer than her homes. But, she always returns to Colorado. Professionally, Olette has spent her career in leadership positions in the telecommunications, IT

Services and consulting industries while working and living throughout the US and internationally. Her focus has been in Organizational Development and Communications where she combines talents for creating learning environments and cultivating cohesive, collaborative teams and organizations. After working in the field for years, she figured she might want to learn more about Organizational Development and recently completed her MS degree. She now works for Technical Information Associates, Inc., a wonderful company, that allows her to work with new companies and people all over the world training employees on new technologies. What a perfect fit for what she loves to do and they actually pay her to do it! When she's not working, Olette loves cooking and crocheting and her dogs, Kahuna and Max, and of course her husband, Dean. Just to keep life interesting, she trains for and walks marathons. The next one is in September, 2013.

SERVICE WITH THE NEXT GENERATION

Iota, Iota Iota (Tri-Iota) is the Women's Studies Honor Society at Metro. This group of about 20 women is the alpha chapter of the honor society, established in 1992, which now has more than 60 chapters at universities across the country. Since they are high-achievers, focused on women's issues, interested in increasing their hands-on service, and likely to become professionals, they seem a perfect fit for partnering with ZCD.

Through this partnership, we could enjoy a few more hands at our service projects, hear some fresh ideas about activities and fundraisers, and possibly, find that some Tri-Iotans might consider membership after they graduate. Wouldn't it be great if the partnership

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

President Wendy

June begins our Zonta Fiscal Year. I can already hear all the “to-dos” being mentally noted, scribbled on paper lists, entered into computer spreadsheets and tapped into smart phones. So we take a deep breath—or several—to mentally embrace the new year. In that breath, let’s remember the larger vision of why we volunteer with Zonta.

We’ve all heard the story about two masons on the Notre Dame in Paris who were asked what they were doing. One said, with an exhausted and exasperated sigh, “Moving stones from one place to another, day in and day out. It’s so tedious, and I’ll never see the finished product, so why bother?” And the other said, with a smile, as he slathered another row of stones with mortar, “I’m building a cathedral for my great-grandchildren!”

Thank you, 2012 – 2013 Board members, for moving the stones so gracefully and graciously, always keeping the bigger picture in mind. For balancing the books, producing newsletters, printing postcards, delivering flyers, taking minutes, sharing your expertise, reading legislation, reviewing grant applications, booking rooms and speakers, screening movies, planning menus, placing signs, pricing kitchen utensils, opening your homes, soliciting donations, et cetera, et cetera. You have my special thanks for all the times you filled in and picked up the wheelbarrow handles when another member needed assistance or got pulled away by more pressing needs. Here’s another thank you for keeping me on track with reminder calls and emails when deadlines loomed. Welcome, 2013 – 2014 Board members! I am looking forward to this year and working closely with you as we tackle all the stuff in the above paragraph and more. We have a good mix of experience and new ideas and that should mean a great deal of energy to share with the club. Please make a note about the value and appreciation of reminder calls and emails to the president...

Forward we go into 2013 – 2014. Thank you to all Zonta Club of Denver members for choosing to share your time and talents to help build a foundation for a better future for women and children.

—Wendy

MAY MEETING MINUTES

Meeting called to order at 6:05 p.m.

April minutes approved as submitted. President Wendy thanked Greeter Judy Allen and welcomed guests. Members started dinner and enjoyed the program during dessert. Jacki St. Joan, author of "My Sisters Made of Light," presented the story of how her book about saving women from family honor killings in Pakistan came to be.

Prez Wendy gave an abbreviated Treasurers' report and called for a group photo at Cynthia's request, so we could send a picture of us to our sponsored child in Africa.

Prez Wendy reported on the new partnership with Tri-Iota and our participation at its recent Board installation and member induction ceremony. We will be inviting this group of high-achieving women to participate in our service projects and other activities as the club

Committee reports:
Membership-- plans for the June dinner meeting to be held at Spero Winery and serve as a "get to know Zonta Club of Denver" event for prospective members and the just curious.

Service-- plans for upcoming Delores dinners and a graduation project for women at one of our grantees' later in June. We're hoping to involve the girls from Tri-Iota in that activity as well. More details to follow.

Public relations-- upcoming meeting May 29, at which the committee would be putting together a calendar of PR activities for the 2013 - 2014 Zonta year.

Fund raising-- Thanks for all the participation on the yard sale, and attributed it success to how many members bought items,
