THANK YOU'S...

Dear Zonta Sisters,

I can not thank you enough for the beautiful flowers, kind note and phone calls, and the cooler full of food! My family so appreciated the delicious salads and cupcakes. We had almost 30 at dinner Saturday evening..

Millie had a wonderful, long life, and we celebrated all of that and more last Saturday. We all appreciate your support and condolences.

Love,

Kathy Hyzer

Dear Nikki,

Thank you for inviting me to speak to your membership about our Imagination Library collaboration. Denver Great Kids Head Start is very lucky to have such a wonderful community partner in literacy. Please let your membership know how much I enjoyed my evening with you.

As a former Zonta Club member said...'Courage is the price that life exacts for granting peace. The soul that knows it not, knows no release from little things; knows not the livid loneliness of fear, nor mountain heights where bitter joy can hear the sound of wings. Amelia Earhart'

Our world needs more S-heroes to carry on the work of supporting women and children like your club members!!

Sincerely,

Kathy Orth

President Nikki's September Message...

August 28, 2007

Thank you, Liz, for providing a truly lovely locale for our August meeting. Everyone seemed to have a great time.

For those of you who weren't there, the exercise in re-naming the membership directory has been resolved. The name is going to be "Zonta Club of Denver – Directory and Beyond. That was the option after the first go-round that had the greatest number of votes – FOUR! This time it had more than four.

We're off to a great start this year (yikes, we're one-fourth of the way through that year!) and have already added one new member. That member is Mindy Craig. She's special because she's the niece of our Judy McNerny. It's truly wonderful to see Zonta passed from one generation to another. Each of the committees has set goals and is hard at work attaining those goals.

I have asked Julie to print the "Do We Have As Much Sense As a Goose" story in the Smoke Signal. Judy McNerny originally brought it to our attention a few years ago. It's a favorite of mine, and I thought it's a good time to be remembering:

Because we have a common direction and goals, it's faster to achieve them because we are working as many (many in our Club, many clubs in the Area, many clubs in the District, and finally many, many clubs in our International organization). It's pretty hard to change the course of anything if you're flying solo.

Often I hear complaints that the same people are doing the majority of the work. I'm feeling that we are sharing the work a great deal more. We all need to remember to delegate and take turns doing the hard jobs. Hopefully, that keeps us wanting to continue to share the work.

We are all strong-willed women but still incredibly sensitive. It's easy to hurt another's feelings if we aren't practicing the Golden Rule or aren't careful when we honk from behind.

What a great group of women to be standing among!

I, personally, am thankful to have been in your midst for more than twenty years.

Nikki

"Do We Have As Much Sense As A Goose?"

Leadership is the ability to work with and motivate others to achieve goals. We offer the following story:

Next Spring, should you see geese heading back north for the summer flying along a "V" formation, you might be interested in Knowing what scientist have discovered about why they fly that way. It has been learned that as each bird flaps its wings, it creates an uplift for the bird immediately following.

By flying in a "V" formation, the whole flock adds at least 71% greater flying range that if each bird flew on its own. Basic Truth: People who share a common direction and sense of community can get where they are going quicker and easier because they are traveling on the thrust of one another.

Whenever a goose falls out of formation, it suddenly feels the drag and resistance of trying to go it alone and quickly gets back into formation to take advantage of the lifting power of the bird immediately in front. Basic Truth: If we have as much sense as a goose, we will stay in formation with those who are headed the same way we are going.

When the lead goose gets tired, she rotates back in the wing and another goose flies point. Basic Truth: It pays to take turns doing hard jobs.

The geese hank from behind to encourage those up front to keep up their speed. Basic Truth: We need to be careful what we say when we honk from behind.

Finally, when a goose is sick and falls out, two geese fall out of formation and follow her down to help and protect her. They stay with her until she is either able to fly or until she is dead, and then they launch out on their own or with another formation to catch up with their group. Final Truth: If we have the sense of a goose, we will stand by each other.

In addition to planning the Open House, the Committee adopted its goals for the year and a plan to achieve them, based on A Course for the Future and the Club's long-range plan. A copy of the plan is included in this issue of the Smoke Signal on page 8 & 9.

Our most important goal is to retain our current members. A large number of new Zontians leave their club within the first three years. Would you be willing to serve as a mentor to a new member of our Club? (Four of our five New Zees do not have mentors yet!) Our committee is working on mentoring guidelines and would like to put your name on a list of potential mentors. Let Judy or Joetta know if you are willing to be a Zonta guide to a current or future New Zee.

Last, but not least, don't forget that our Christmas party will be on Tuesday, December 11. Cathy Conley and Dolores Lowery, both hostesses extraordinaire, are working on menus and other details, so it will be a gala event! Please plan to bring your spouse, significant other, best friend, or anyone else with whom you would like to share good food and friendship during the holiday season.

- * Gently used suiting separates (skirts, blouses, dress pants, etc)
- * Coats
- * Blazers
- * Handbags and briefcases
- * New pantyhose

- * Jewelry

Please donate items that you would feel comfortable wearing on an interview yourself.

* Sizes 18W-26W are especially in demand ****

Grant applications were due August 31st, and the committee will begin processing them on September 4th. We're looking forward to some excellent proposals from organizations helping women in the Denver area.

Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, one of our past grant recipients, is holding a series of open houses in September. Perhaps you'd like to see the recording facility and learn about the program, or would like to find out more about volunteering for RFB&D. Open house tours are scheduled for Tuesday, September 18th, 5-7 pm, and Thursday, September 20th, 3-5 pm, at 1355 S. Colorado Blvd, Suite C-406, Denver 80222. Watch for a sign-up sheet on the Service clipboard at the September meeting.

Please remember to clip coupons for the Teen Moms at Denver Kids, Inc. Some of the expiration dates are short, so you can mail them to Theresa Smith at DKI, 1330 Fox St., Denver 80204. The girls are learning to comparison shop and use coupons wisely for food, hygiene products, diapers, formula, and baby wipes.

Interim Report: Bob MacDonald, Services Director at the Women's Bean Project, writes that ZCD's $2,500 grant was used for a three day storytelling workshop. Three women have already made videos of their personal stories, with two more to come. WBP was able to use the recordings at its major fundraiser in May, and would like to share them with the Club.

THE ZONTA CLUB OF THE PIKES PEAK AREA

The Glass Slipper Ball

Saturday March 1, 2008

I was honored attend this marvelous first time event for the Pikes Peak Club earlier this year in January. The attendance by other Zonta Clubs was not very good because we had such a horrendous winter. Please mark your calendars. Since the club has voted to accept the long range plan which includes a signature event of this type I believe it would be prudent for us to see an event like this in action. I know the club's proceeds were in excess on $10,000.00. It was invigorating and energizing and well worth it.

Minnie Lundberg- a Zontian since 1976!

Named after an Aunt Minnie Eloise...years later Minnie discovered that her aunt hated her name too! Born in Manson, Iowa...her dad was a farmer but moved to Ft. Dodge, and Minnie finished High School as a city girl!

Minnie's mother, all too young, died from a ruptured appendix and Minnie's father remarried a woman he met through the "lonely hearts" magazine. (pre-cursor to on-line dating). As Minnie described her, she was as "short as she was round" and had a lovely sense of humor...Minnie liked her. Apparently, this new wife would not tell her new husband how much she weighed, so one day Minnie's dad arranged a deal with a friend (relative?) on a farm to use his grain scale. He pre-measured his truck's weight and then brought his new Missus over in the truck and on to the scale. She was smart though...she knew what he did and Minnie remembers her step mom declaring with all of her "southern charm", that her new husband "would have many friends circling him saying 'doesn't he look natural lying there? (...in his casket!)" Yes, she had a delightful sense of humor.

Minnie's dad wanted her to be a teacher, but Minnie did not want to teach...she wanted to take typing, accounting, and shorthand. Even then, she knew she wanted to be a "professional woman". After she signed up for her classes, she THEN needed to tell her dad that she was not going to teach...and she was scared. After working up her courage to tell her father she had signed up for business, not teaching, he said to her "Do good Minnie, do good." The overwhelming support of her father still brings tears to Minnie's eyes... (mine too.)

Minnie was the youngest of many siblings...one of her sisters was 15 years older, so M grew up with her nieces and nephews as if they were cousins. After high school, Minnie moved to Pennsylvania to live with her sister and to start her career in business. She applied for a job in a bank, but did not get the job. Disappointed, she took a job next door at J.C. Penney's Department Store. One day the bank boss came in and offered her a job while she was on the floor working. Apparently the Banker said something such as, "...he knew a good workhorse when he saw one!" (yes, that was a compliment). Minnie submitted her resignation on the spot to the manager who let her know how "unhappy" he was. Our future "business woman" learned an important rule about timing.

She married her best friend's brother. In hindsight, the match was not the best, everyone had been asking them where they going to "tie the knot". Eventually, they moved to Colorado because her husband's family were coping with health issues and Colorado's air was supposed to be healthy and healing. Although she and her husband eventually divorced, the joy of the marriage is her son. Minnie's son lives on the Western Slope of Colorado...and there are grandchildren (ask the proud grandma about them).

Minnie married Mr. Lundberg and sadly, he left this world all too soon, but the sweetness Ms. Minnie had in her voice when she spoke of "Mr. Lundberg" was truly endearing. It was through Mr. Lundberg that Minnie met Kendall King. Mr. King was very interested in having Minnie work for the King Foundation, and after significant salary negotiation, she has spent the past many years working for the foundation. Her contributions have been a shining example to many professional women, and no place more than in the Zonta Club of Denver. Minnie will be retiring in May 2008. Concerning her retirement, it sounds as though the King Foundation still does not believe that she is really going through with it... denial (not the River)...but she is going to retire...there is traveling to do!

From the time Minnie was in high school, she knew she wanted to be a professional woman working in the world of business...and that is what she has done and done well...okay, except for that J.C. Penney's store in Pennsylvania...but that was the exception she still laughs at today. Oh, and Minnie was very involved in Zonta too....but over lunch, we did not talk about Zonta much...forgive me dear readers, I so enjoyed hearing about Minnie's life's I did not leave time to ask about her history with Zonta...but I bet she will tell you if you ask her!

Linda Rhea presented the inspirational moment

Joetta Williams reported on the status of women in India which included the fact they have just elected their first female president.

Jacki Sammons reported on the Zonta headquarters building in Chicago. The decision has been made to sell it because it is larger than needed and is in constant need of very expensive repairs. A new condo/office will be purchased in another building.

Linda Corssmit continued with a Word of Dutch preparing everyone for the trip to International in Rotterdam.

Mary Benoit and Jacki Sammons were treated to the clubs rendition of happy birthday as they both have August ones.

Potluck dinner was enjoyed by all and was followed by our guest speaker, Kathy Orth from the Denver Mayor's Office as Family Services Coordinator. She discussed how the Imagination Library that we support has helped Headstart kids located in the zip code area of 80205.

New member Mindy Craig who is a physician's assistant was installed by Dolores Lowery and Dorothy Swindt along with Mindy's Aunt Judy McNerny.

Nikki asked approval of July minutes and they were approved.

Mandy Ziegler gave the finance report. She indicated most past issues have been resolved. The audit has been completed. The 1st quarterly report will be next month. We will have on-line banking in place next week. If anyone needs reimbursement for expenses, a voucher will be needed and Mandy can give you one. If you are on the permanent reservation list for the general meeting dinners but don't cancel your reservation by noon Monday before the meeting, you will be billed for the cost of the dinner. There are 27 attendees at the meeting this evening.

Judy McNerny reported for the membership committee. Mark your calendar for the Christmas Party on 12/11 at the Lakewood Country Club. Get directory pictures to Judy asap. The location for the new member open house is the clubhouse of the Three Fountain development. Our next general meeting will be back at the hotel.

Cathy Conley honored Cynthia Herndon with the Zonta Rocks Award, even though Cynthia is out of the country on vacation with her family.

Linda Corssmit reported service committee business. The club will be collecting coupons for the young mothers in the Teen Moms program. There is a coupon website which is coupons.com. You can click on what is appropriate and print them off. Obviously, that is only one resource. Robin Smith will have a coupon collection basket at the monthly general meetings. The grant application is on the website and letters of invitation to apply have been sent to nine organizations. Next month we will be collecting business attire of all kinds for all sizes (larger sizes, especially, are needed) for Dress for Success.

Jacki Sammons, Diane Twining and Barb Pellegrin reported for fundraising. There are three upcoming theatre events – La Cage Aux Folles on November 17th at 7:30 p.m. preceded by a potluck hosted by the Benois. Second play is Always Patsy Cline on February 9th with an after show wine and cheese. The last play is Little Shop of Horrors on April 27th – mark your calendars now. The Zonta Yellow Rose Tea – a non attendance fundraiser will be March 6th. Next Tuesday, 8/14, there will be a sew-in at the American Legion Post #17 to make items for sale. A flyer will be e-mailed soon with particulars. These items can then be sold at the meeting in Spearfish and at the Amelia Earhart Dinner, etc.

A new name for our club directory was voted on and it will be Directory and Beyond. The club approved the new Long Range Plan.

Mandy Ziegler explained the budget and the club passed it.

Nikki Headlee and Judy McNerny will be our two delegates to the meeting in Spearfish and Sheila Davis and Dorothy Swindt were nominated as alternates.

Evie Ashmore won the door prize and will furnish the one for the next meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:50 p.m.
